Kindergarten class celebrates Clifford's 50th birthday!

Mrs. Feiler's Kindergarten library class recently helped to celebrate the 50th birthday of Clifford the Big Red Dog!

The class watched a video about how author Norman Bridwell developed the idea for the Clifford books, read

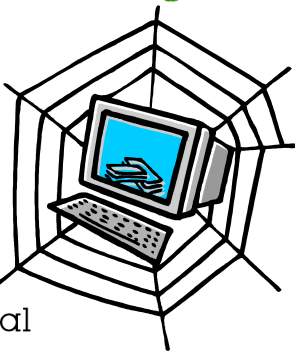

"Clifford's Happy Easter," and had their pictures taken wearing Clifford hats made just for the occasion! Visit www.scholastic.com/clifford for activities and information on Clifford's BIG birthday!

5th & 6th grade learns about Internet Safety!

In March 5th & 6th grade library classes talked about the importance of Internet Safety. We discussed why it is not a good idea to share personal information or passwords online, the importance of being kind to others online, and why it's important for children to tell a parent or adult if they see something online that makes them feel uncomfortable. Follow the "Internet Safety" link on the library webpage for more information...

6th graders begin... The Amazing Race!

In April 6th grade library classes began "The Amazing Race," a research game based on the popular TV show. 6th grade teams are assigned to 'travel' to interesting places around the world, gathering research facts during their travels ahead of the competing teams. Using iPads, computers, and encyclopedias, teams began with a trip to the Eiffel Tower in Paris, France...where will they go next?
