Magic Tree House Contest Winners Announced!

In November students were invited to participate in a Magic Tree House book-cover contest for an opportunity to win the latest Magic Tree House book. Students were asked to create their own Jack & Annie adventure and make a book-cover to accompany it. The winners included "A Twilight Trainwreck" & "Bandits at Bedtime," while Honorable Mention went to "Saturday on the Submarine," "Night of the Nutcracker," & "A Day with Huge Hawks." All entries have been on display for all to see and enjoy!

5TH GRADES DECORATE TREE!

As is the custom, this year's 5th grade library classes have made homemade ornaments for the library's multi-cultural tree. They made paper hearts from Denmark, paper spiders from Poland, gold-painted walnuts from England, and onion-dome ornaments from Russia. They did a great job!

What's up? Kindergarten & 1st grade library classes are enjoying books by December Author of the Month Marla Frazee, like "Boss Baby" & "Santa Claus, the world's number one toy expert." And 5th grade library classes competing in the "Amazing Race" unit have researched the Space Needle, the Colosseum in Rome, and the Great Pyramid in Egypt. That's what's up!

NEW EBOOKS WEBSITE!

Valleyview library students are being introduced to "Sora," a new and free eBooks website provided to Oneonta students by the ONC Boces. Following the link provided on the library webpage, students will be able to read free eBooks at school as well as at home!
